

CONCEALED DAMAGE CLAUSE (G)

Notwithstanding anything contained to the contrary in this policy, it is hereby noted and agreed that this insurance shall be specially extended to cover loss or damage to the goods insured caused by perils insured against even though such loss or damage is discovered at the time of unpacking the goods insured at the destination named in the policy after this insurance has already expired, if notice of survey has been given to this Company's claims settling agent at the destination within the period listed in the policy after expiry of this insurance, unless proof conclusive to the contrary be established.