

Voyage Clause

Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere herein to the contrary, this Policy is extended to cover property insured hereunder where same is stopped in transit anywhere in the World, for any purpose, including, but not limited to, assembly and/or testing and/or processing and/or exhibition, subject to the limits and conditions as detailed herein.

This insurance attaches from the time the Insured acquires an insurable interest in the goods and/or merchandise and covers continuously thereafter while in due course of transit anywhere in the World until delivered to final destination or until the Insured's insurable interest ceases, including the risks of loading and unloading (including when the risk for goods ready for shipment is transferred to the Insured before commencement of transport.)

This insurance is further extended to cover the goods during:

- a) deviation, delay, forced discharge, reshipment and trans-shipment;
- b) any other variation of the adventure arising from the exercise of a liberty granted to the shipowner or charterer under the contract of affreightment; and in the event of the exercise of any liberty granted to the shipowner or charterer under the contract of affreightment whereby such contract is terminated at a port or place other than original insured destination, this insurance continues until the goods and/or merchandise are sold and delivered at such port or place; or, if the goods are not sold but are forwarded to the original insured destination or to any other destination, this insurance continues until the goods and/or merchandise have arrived as provided in the second paragraph of this clause;
- c) change of voyage or of any description of the interest, conveyance or voyage.
