WAIVER OF SUBROGATION AGAINST SONY GROUP COMPANIES

It is specially understood and agreed that the subrogation for the claims shall be waived by this company who shall not enforce any right or remedies against Sony Corporation and/or subsidiaries and/or affiliated companies of Sony Corporation (hereinafter referred as the 'Sony Group') and/or logistics companies of the Sony Group and/or logistics companies appointed by Sony Group companies including their sub-contractors not acting as actual Ocean and/or Air carrier.

Notwithstanding the above, subject to the agreement by the Assured as well as Sony Corporation, this Company may pursue a subrogation against sub-contractors of logistics companies of the Sony Group and/or logistics companies appointed by Sony Group companies.

Such waiver of subrogation against Sony Group and/or above-mentioned sub-contractors is conditioned upon Sony Group assigning to this Company all of its rights to claim against any other third party who may be liable for the insured loss and giving all reasonable assistance (including extending any relevant time bar) to enable this Company to invoke its subrogated rights against such third party other than Sony Group and/or above-mentioned sub-contractors.
