

REFUSED OR RETURNED SHIPMENT CLAUSE (C)

In the event of refusal or inability of the consignee to accept delivery of goods insured in this policy, this insurance subject to all its terms, conditions and warranties, is extended to cover such shipments until returned to The Insured or until otherwise disposed of. The Insured agrees to report the facts of such situations as they become known to them and pay additional premium to be agreed and warranties set forth elsewhere in this policy.