

Debris Removal Clause(L)

This insurance is extended to cover costs and expenses, including costs incurred reasonably for shipping to a third country and/or country from which the cargo is originally exported, necessarily incurred by the Assured for removal (including disposal. Hereinafter referred to as “removal”) of debris specified below, due to the destruction and/or damage to the insured goods by the perils insured against (subject to prior consent of the insurer.)

1. Removal of debris occurred during storage(including temporary storage in transit).
2. Removal of debris occurred during transit(other than above).

Insurer will not pay for any costs or expenses arising from pollution of air, water or soil.

The amount recoverable under this clause shall not exceed the amount listed in the policy.