

Special Clause for Forwarding Charge (D)

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, it is hereby specially understood and agreed that, in the event of loss of or damage by perils covered under this Policy, this Company shall also indemnify the charges for landing, warehousing, forwarding and refitting for prompt and immediate replacement of lost or damaged goods subject to the followings.

- a) The charges for forwarding shall include those for forwarding by vessel or air provided that this company's approval of such international transportation should be first obtained.
- b) In no case shall the liability of this company exceed the amount listed in the policy (or equivalent in other currencies).
