

SPECIAL CLAUSE FOR MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE(B)

This policy specially covers the risks of shortage of contents of package(s), howsoever and whosoever occurring and claims against such shortage shall be payable if and to the extent that the Assured fails to recover the said loss from the shipper &/or other parties concerned.

Such shortage shall be ascertained by comparison of the number of goods hereby insured shown in the shipper's commercial invoice &/or packing list with those duly evidenced at the time of unpacking at the consignee's final warehouse.

It is further agreed that such shortage shall be payable not beyond the amount listed in the policy.
