

Special Clause for the Actions of Customs

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, it is hereby agreed that this Insurance is extended to cover Physical Loss of or Damage to the subject-matter insured caused by the actions of customs agents in the course of their inspection duties.

In no case shall this insurance cover loss or damage to the subject-matter insured arising from the risk of rejection or condemnations by the government of the country of Import due to violation of the quarantine.