INSURANCE ARRANGEMENT FOR THE APPOINTED COMPANY 1 SPECIFIED IN THE POLICY LOGISTICS IN USA AND/OR CANADA [01/04/2023]

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, this Policy is extended to cover the subject-matters insured, that are imported to the U.S. or Canada by the appointed company 1 specified in the policy while such subject-matters are in transit and until they have been received at their final destination warehouses in the U.S or Canada (*), except while the subject-matters are situated in interim warehouses that the appointed company 2 specified in the policy or any other companies of Assured's group (which are hereinafter referred to as "Assured's group company") utilize as part of the transit process to said final destination warehouses. If the subject-matters are initially placed in warehouses or places other than those utilized by "Assured's group company", and are later kept by "Assured's group company" with its intent and instruction to use the same places for their storage purposes, then the coverage hereunder shall temporarily cease from the time they are kept by "Assured's group company" until the time the transit resumes. The coverage hereunder, however, shall re-attach at the time when such subsequent transit resumes and shall continue until the subject-matters are received at their final destination warehouses. The transit from such places to the customers of appointed company 1 specified in the policy in the U.S. and/or Canada shall also be covered hereunder provided that the subject-matters are initially placed in warehouses or places other than those utilized by "Assured's group company".

(*) Final destination warehouse shall mean last warehouse;

(a) used by the appointed company 2 specified in the policy to store the subject-matters before delivery to their customers.

Final destination warehouses include but are not limited to, the Distribution Center of appointed company 3 specified in the policy in Terre Haute/IN, Chino/CA and Mississauga/ON, or

(b) in the case of direct transit shipments (that is without the use of any storage facility in the U.S. hired by "Assured's group company") from outside the U.S. to the customers of the appointed company 2 specified in the policy in the U.S., the customers' warehouse shall be the final warehouse.”

(c) in the case of direct transit shipments (that is without the use of any storage facility in Canada hired by "Assured's group company") from outside Canada to the customers of the appointed company 2 specified in the policy in Canada, the customers' warehouse shall be the final warehouse.”

(d) in the case of direct transit shipments (that is without the use of any storage facility in US hired by "Assured's group company") from outside US to the customers of the appointed company 4 specified in the policy in US, the customers' warehouse shall be the final warehouse.”
