

三井住友海上火灾保险（中国）有限公司
SPECIAL TRANSIT CLAUSE FOR GOODS
EXPORTED/IMPORTED TO THE U.S.A (EXCEPT EXPORT/IMPORT TO THE APPOINTED COMPANY SPECIFIED IN THE POLICY)

[01/04/2023]

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, this Policy is extended to cover the subject-matters insured, that are exported or imported to the U.S.A. while such subject-matters are in transit and until they have been received at the final destination warehouses in the U.S.A (*), except while the subject-matters are situated in interim warehouses that an Assured's group company(ies) in the U.S.A (excluding the appointed company specified in the policy) (hereinafter referred to as "the Assured's group company") utilizes as part of the transit process to said final destination warehouses. If the subject-matters are initially placed in warehouses or places other than those utilized by "the Assured's group company", and are later kept by "the Assured's group company" with its intent and instruction to use the same places for their storage purposes, then the coverage hereunder shall temporarily cease from the time they are kept by "the Assured's group company" until the time the transit resumes. The coverage hereunder, however, shall re-attach at the time when such subsequent transit resumes and shall continue until the subject-matters are received at their final destination warehouses.

This Special Transit Clause shall not apply to the export/import to the appointed company specified in the policy to which the separate Special Transit Clause shall apply.
